Note on the Administration of Civil Justice in the North-Western Provinces during the calendar year 1894.

I.—COURTS SUBORDINATE TO THE HIGH COURT.

(a)—Original Jurisdiction.

Suits. Judicial Statement No. 9. Part I.

THE following table shows the course of judicial business for the last six years :—

	Instituted.	Total for disposal, including remands, reviews and revivals.	Disposed of.	Pending.
1889	95,226	106,831	96,061	10,770
1890	93,684	106,447	95,553	10,894
1891	88,251	100,983	90,291	10,692
1892	95,193	107,725	96,765	10,960
1893	95,056	107,910	96,649	11,261
1894	89,180	102,145	90,156	11,989

Table A.

The great decrease in institutions has not been accompanied, as it should have been, by a decrease in the pending file; this is due in part to a great rush of institutions in Balha towards the end of the year, and to the rise in the Meerut munsifi upon withdrawal of the additional munsif. But in Sháhjahánpur, Bareilly, Moradabad, Gorakhpur, Saháranpur, Benares and Cawnpore more might have been done towards reducing the arrears.

2. Details of the increase and decrease of suits instituted in each district are as follow :—

Increase.

Gházipur	575	Agra	63

Decrease.

Sháhjahánpur	832	Gorakhpur	358
Jhánsi	684	Saháranpur	321
Meerut	626	Cawnpore	283
Bareilly	527	Farukhabad	268
Moradabad	492	Aligarh	260
Jaunpur	407	Benares	138
Mainpuri	396	Mirzapur	82
Allahabad	391	Azamgarh	67
Bánda	380

The increase in Ghazipur is due to a sudden rush of suits to contest entries in the settlement records, the period of limitation of such suits being at hand. Of the decreases, that at Sháhjahánpur is ascribed to a bad season following years of continued increase in litigation; that at Jhánsi to the hopelessness of suing when the crops were too bad to afford means of recovery of decree-money; that at Meerut to a general improvement in the position of the indebted population; that at Jaunpur to excessive floods; that at Mainpuri to cholera and heavy rains; that at Gorakhpur is said in the district report to be due to the dying out of cases raised by the late settlement, but causes similar to those at work in Sháhjahánpur seem to have been acting here also. The fall at Cawnpore is said to be due to the epidemic of cholera; that at Saháranpur to general ill-health and a poor autumn harvest and to personal reasons. No explanation has been offered of the decreases in Bareilly, Moradabad, Allahabad and Bánda.

Judicial Statement No. 7.

3. The suits instituted were thus classified in comparison with those instituted in 1893 :—

	1893.	1894.
For money or moveable property	69,377	62,604
For immoveable property	12,434	11,303
Mortgage suits...	8,903	11,275
For specific relief	1,958	1,775
To establish a right of pre-emption	1,772	1,676
Other suits	612	547
Total ...	95,056	89,180

The new registers, opened in 1893, have not been properly filled up in every place. In some courts and even in whole districts, such as Saháranpur and Bareilly, the returns make it quite clear that the directions for registration have been disregarded. In some the mistakes made in 1893 have been corrected in 1894. There is no assurance therefore in making a general comparison of the two years. Only the following ascertained changes may serve to explain the general figures. In Gházipur there was an increase of 881 suits for immoveable property for reasons already noted. In Jhánsi, as already explained, there was a decrease of 685 suits for money. In the Kaimganj, Tilhar, Bisauli and several other munsifis mortgage suits were in 1893 wrongly entered as suits for moveable or immoveable property. In Bareilly there was a clear decrease of 579 money suits, in Benares a clear fall of 197 title suits. Many of the returns for 1894 have only been corrected with great difficulty. As an example of the variations, apparently between the two years' institutions, but really between correct and incorrect returns, the Mainpuri judgeship may be taken ; but others, and Agra particularly, have similar figures :—

	Money or moveables.		Immoveables.		Specific relief.		Pre-emption.		Mortgage.		Other suits.		Total.

Judicial Statement No. 8.

4. The values of the subject matter in dispute during the last six years have been :—

	Rs.		Rs.
1889	2,76,81,497	1892	2,58,85,331
1890	2,77,15,803	1893	2,55,42,173
1891	2,28,59,300	1894	2,68,39,427

The chief district changes which go to make up the increase of nearly 13 lakhs are the following, all in the courts of Subordinate Judges :—

Increase	Rs.	Decrease.	Rs.
Title suits.		Title suits.
Saharanpur...	25,16,756	Agra	4,90,802
Mainpuri	13,48,346	Moradabad	4,63,803
Cawnpore	5,50,527	Gorakhpur	3,58,800
Bareilly	3,74,874	Shâhjahânpur	2,78,286
Farukhabad	2,68,353	Money suits.
Jaunpur	2,06,013	Bareilly	5,61,807
Money suits.		Meerut	2,23,646
Cawnpore	1,72,720	Farukhabad	1,72,800

The three principal decreases are ascribed to the absence of exceptionally big suits in 1894; the principal increase to one suit valued at over 26 lakhs.

5. The percentage of contested suits to suits disposed of was just over 29 against 28·5, 28·9, 29, 28·3, and 28·5 in the five preceding years. There are some noticeably high figures which may be detailed :—

74·64 per cent. in the court of the Subordinate Judge of Mainpuri.
73	ditto	ditto	Additional Munsif of Benares.
72	ditto	ditto	District Judge of Benares.
72	ditto	ditto	Subordinate Judge of Gházipur.
67	ditto	ditto	ditto	Azamgarh.
53	ditto	ditto	ditto	Cawnpore.
47	ditto	in the whole Azamgarh district.

Against these may be compared the low percentages of 14 and 15 in the suits tried under Small Cause Court powers in the districts of Moradabad and Sahâranpur respectively. A noteworthy change also is that between the percentage (23) of 1893 and that (44) of 1894 in regular suits in the Haveli munsifi at Bareilly.

6. Plaintiffs were successful in only 56·6 per cent. of suits against 56·8 in 1893 and 58·5 in 1892.

7. The average duration in contested cases rose from 76 to 82 days, all courts except those of Subordinate Judges contributing to the rise. The increased duration in Small Cause Courts is remarkable; in 1893 it was 39 days, in 1894 it was 47. The munsifis that raise the average are those in the Azamgarh and Jaunpur districts, those at Koil, Kasganj, Deoband, Meerut, Gháziabad, Shâhjahânpur, Sahaswan, Basti and Deoria. The duration at Deoria owing to heavy arrears is 209 days. The Subordinate Judge's Court at Aligarh and the Small Cause Court at Dehra have also high durations.

In uncontested cases the duration rose from 33 to 35 days, the Subordinate Judges' courts being the only class having a decreased average.

8. The principal changes in the number of suits pending between the beginning and the close of the year were in the following districts :—

	Increase.		Decrease.
Gházipur ...	914	Mirzapur ...	244
Meerut ...	485	Azamgarh ...	214
Sahâranpur ...	241	Jaunpur ...	162
Allahabad ...	144	Farukhabad ...	146
		Mainpuri ...	107

The rush of institutions in Gházipur has already been noticed. The Meerut and Gháziabad Munsifs were overwhelmed with work throughout the year. In Sahâranpur the increase should not have been allowed. In Allahabad the extra munsif was withdrawn at the end of 1893. In all the districts in which the pending files were reduced the disposals of 1894 were more numerous than those of 1893. There was an additional munsif at work for over eight months at Benares, but the results of his labours were poor and the pending file in that district was not largely reduced.

9. The file of pending suits at the close of the year was above 500 in the following districts :—

District.		District.
Gházipur ...	1,803	Agra ...	737
Sahâranpur ...	1,406	Benares ...	723
Meerut ...	1,267	Shâhjahânpur ...	710
Gorakhpur ...	1,020	Aligarh ...	574
Moradabad ...	740	Jaunpur ...	504

The same districts were in the list for 1893. Azamgarh, then included, had only 290 suits pending at the end of 1894.

10. The numbers of witnesses summoned, of witnesses examined, and of parties examined during the last three years may be thus compared :—

	1892.	1893.	1894.
Witnesses summoned	245,379	262,490	249,771
Witnesses examined	113,809	114,526	106,247
Parties examined	25,566	25,248	26,868

The decrease in examinations and in the summoning of witnesses appears to follow the fall in institutions.

11. The amount of diet money paid to witnesses was as follows :—

	Rs.	Average per witness.
1892	1,33,569	9 annas 4 pies.
1893	1,43,767	9 „ 9 „
1894	1,48,370	10 „ 11 „

As in 1893, the lowest averages are in the east; the highest in the west and in Bundelkhand.

Miscellaneous Judicial cases. Judicial Statement No. 9, Part II.

12. The figures of miscellaneous judicial cases for the last six years are as follow :—

1889	30,888	1892	53,961
1890	33,859	1893	54,714
1891	47,469	1894	48,503

The decrease of 6,211 is mainly accounted for in the following districts :—

Meerut	895	Cawnpore	456	Sháhjahánpur	309
Allahabad	590	Aligarh	367	Gházipur	308
Sahéranpur	566	Benares	355	Azamgarh	294
Gorakhpur	523	Moradabad	346	Agra	269

13. The number of contested cases disposed of fell by 2,040, and there were 109 fewer cases pending at the end of the year than at the beginning. The average duration in contested cases was 45 days against 48 in the previous year, and in uncontested cases 28 against 29.

14. Details of duration in contested cases for three years in the different courts are these :—

	1892. Days.	1893. Days.	1894. Days.
Munsifs' courts	45	42	40
S. C. Courts	37	36	37
Subordinate Judges' Courts	64	62	53
District Judges' Courts	121	109	101

Execution of decrees. Judicial Statement No 11.

15. The work of executing decrees in the past six years has been as follows :—

	Applications for execution.
	For disposal.	Disposed of.	Pending.
1889	111,644	95,759	15,885
1890	105,516	89,180	16,336
1891	99,415	82,312	17,103
1892	100,093	83,866	16,227
1893	100,035	86,299	13,736
1894	89,035	69,240	19,795

In 1893 and previously decrees transferred for execution to other courts, and to the Collector under section 320 of the Code of Civil Procedure, were shown as disposed of, whereas this year they have been shown as pending; this accounts for the apparent lack of energy in the disposal of applications in 1894.

16. The realizations fell by Rs. 5,13,310.

The percentage on the applications disposed of by the courts of proceedings fructuous wholly or in part was lower than in 1893, but higher than any recent corresponding figure: —

1889	35·7	1892	46·6
1890	39·2	1893	49·2
1891	46·3	1894	46·9

17. Owing to the change in the returns, which may not have been fully understood, it seems doubtful whether all the district figures are quite correct. The percentage of Farukhabad is certainly wrong owing to peculiar procedure in the Chibramau munsifi. The figures returned are as follow :—

District.	1892.	1893.	1894.
Farukhabad	47	50	59
Mainpuri	42	46	55
Gházipur	48	51	54
Jhánsi	56	53	53
Sháhjahánpur	47	51	53
Azamgarh	43	49	53
Allahabad	57	62	50
Moradabad	43	45	50
Jaunpur	50	51	49
Mirzapur	38	41	48
Cawnpore	48	45	47
Aligarh	44	46	46
Meerut	34	43	45
Bánda	43	37	45
Bareilly	41	43	43
Agra	32	36	41
Saháranpur	40	41	40
Benares	35	39	36
Gorakhpur	27	32	34

Allahabad has greatly fallen; Mainpuri, Moradabad, Mirzapur, Bánda and Agra appear to have better results; but a comparison with other districts is not safe owing to the doubt as to the returns.

18. In munsifs' courts the best percentages were at East Budaun 74, Ballia 72, (Additional) Benares 69, Saiyidpur 67, Mirzapur 61, Allahabad, Sambhal, Powayan and Tilhar each 60; the worst were at Gházipur 28 and Basti 23. The munsifi of Chibramau shows 87 per cent. and the munsifi of Akbarpur shows 63 per cent., but the returns are doubtful, as the procedure in one place and the system of compiling the registers in the other seem anomalous.

19. Fewer judgment-debtors were arrested than in the previous year, while the number imprisoned remained about the same. Sales of immoveable property decreased by 1,567 and of moveable property by 297. The comparative figures are :—

	1892.	1893.	1894.
Judgment-debtor imprisoned ...	425	483	464
Ditto arrested ...	1,265	1,541	1,430
Immoveable property sold ...	5,808	6,749	5,182
Moveable property sold ...	2,120	1,913	1,616

Imprisonments were most numerous in Meerut (74), Moradabad (54) and Saháranpur (40).

20. Of 6,986 decrees pending at the end of the year after transfer to other courts for disposal, 5,3[illegible] were cases that had been transferred to Collectors under section 320 of the Code of Civil Procedure for action against the judgment-debtor's ancestral property.

In 1893 7,006 cases were so transferred out of 9,019 in all transferred. Such cases were most numerous in 1894 in the following districts :—

	Number.		Number.
Gorakhpur ...	856	Sháhjahánpur ...	405
Meerut	500	Azamgarh ...	319
Sahárapur ...	481	Aligarh ...	298
Agra ...	444	Moradabad ...	291
Mainpuri ...	428

Sháhjahánpur alone shows a small increase; all the other districts show decreases more or less considerable.

(b).—Appellate Jurisdiction.

Appeals from Decrees. Judicial Statement No. 10.

21. The following figures show the state of the appellate files of all subordinate courts for the last five years :—

	Cases.
	For disposal.	Disposed of.	Pending.
1890	15,648	9,115	6,533
1891	17,140	10,658	6,462
1892	16,147	10,602	5,545
1893	16,264	9,812	6,452
1894	16,017	10,824	5,193

Tables B., C. and E.

22. Of the 10,824 appeals disposed of the details are :—

	From.
	Rent court decrees.	Subordinate Judges' decrees.	Munsifs' decrees.	Total.
By District Judges	1,301	1,368	1,946	4,615
„ Subordinate Judges	...	...	5,925	5,925
„ S. C. C. Judges with jurisdiction of Subordinate Judges.	...	...	284	284
Total ...	1,301	1,368	8,155	10,824

Table B.

23. The District Judges decided 331 more appeals from courts of revenue, 112 more from Subordinate Judges, and 499 more from munsifs than in 1893. The courts deciding the largest numbers were :—

Sháhjahánpur	569	against	388	in	1893
Saháranpur	551	„	422	„	„
Gorakhpur	363	„	298	„	„
Aligarh	351	„	133	„	„
Moradabad	349	„	310	„	„
Gházipur	333	„	351	„	„

In Azamgarh, Meerut, Cawnpore and Jaunpur also there was a considerable increase in the number of appeals disposed of, which was no doubt facilitated in the two former districts by a decrease in the criminal work to be done. In Mainpuri and Bánda, on the contrary, owing to the increase in criminal work and (in Mainpuri) to the fact that in 1894 there was no Additional Sessions Judge as in 1893, the appellate work declined in quantity. There was a temporary Additional Judge at work at Saháranpur during the first eleven weeks of the year. The assistance given by Additional Sessions Judges is detailed in the note on the criminal returns. The office of Judge was vacant in the district of Mirzapur for 24 days, in Bánda for 26 days, in Jhánsi for 9 days, in Saháranpur for 27 days, and in Bareilly for 58 days.

Large numbers of appeals from courts of revenue were disposed of in Aligarh (169), Sháhjahánpur (156), Gházipur (122), Saháranpur (116), Moradabad (101), Gorakhpur (94), Meerut (90) and Mainpuri (89).

Table C.

24. The average number of appeals decided by the court of a Subordinate or Additional Subordinate Judge was 299 against 300 in 1893. There were temporary Additional Subordinate Judges at Sháhjahánpur for five months, at Mainpuri for six months, at Meerut for six months, and at Cawnpore for two months. The Subordinate

Judge of Bánda also had some appeals made over to him towards the close of the year owing to the increase in the Judge's work. There were thus 22 courts of Subordinate Judges hearing appeals during the year against 19 during 1893.

The most striking variations in the numbers of disposals between the two years are in the following permanent courts :—

Decrease	1893.	1894.	Increase.	1893.	1894.
Mainpuri	317	138	Aligarh	362	443
Jaunpur	236	165	Saháranpur ...	66	311
Cawnpore	198	42	Moradabad	341	410
Sháhjahánpur ...	241	4	Gorakhpur	24	363

The following courts disposed of the largest numbers of appeals :—

	Number of cases.
Additional Subordinate Judge, Mainpuri (in six months)	763
" " " Sháhjahánpur (in five months)	615
" " " Ghazipur	608
" " " Meerut (in six months)	540
Subordinate Judge, Aligarh	443
" Moradabad	410
" Gorakhpur	363
" Bareilly	358
" Saháranpur	311
" Azamgarh	301

25. A comparison of the pending files of appeals at the end of the last five years can be made on the figures given in paragraph 21. The division of the pending appeals between District Judge and Subordinate Judge depends very largely on the extent of use of the powers of transfer possessed by the former. Details of appeals pending over three months at the end of each year are these :—

	1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.	1894.
Before Subordinate Judges ...	340	757	420	426	1,076
" District Judges ...	1,049	1,058	729	1,075	2,332
	1,389	1,815	1,149	1,501	3,408

The great difference between the figures for 1893 and those for 1894 is due to the fact that in 1893 and previously the number shown as pending over three months was exclusive of the number pending over six months and a year. In the figures for 1894 are included all the cases actually pending over three months at the close of the year and not only those pending over three and under six months.

26. The durations shown in previous years of appeals decided by Subordinate Judges were deceptive, as only the period of duration in the Subordinate Judge's Court was shown. Thus an appeal may have lain for a year in the District Court, and then been transferred to the Subordinate Judge and by him decided in a month. Its true duration was 13 months, but previous returns would have taken it as one month. This has now been corrected and the correction accounts for the increased average now shown against such courts :—

	Days.
	1889.	1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.	1894.
Subordinate Judges { in the deciding court	130	150	148	136	101	100
Subordinate Judges { altogether	...	...	...	...	...	184
District Judges	204	201	203	246	226	212

27. The following table shows the number of appeals from decrees preferred to the District Courts as compared with the number of appealable decrees. It must be considered however with the knowledge that an appeal in execution from an order made under section 244 of the Code of Civil Procedure is in the returns shown as an appeal from a decree, while the order appealed against is not shown as a decree. The figures for Gházipur for instance are greatly different from those of other districts because from the Ballia Munsif's court alone there were 155 appeals from orders under section 244.

District.	Decrees.	Appeals.	Percentage.	District.	Decrees.	Appeals.	Percentage.
Gházipur ...	1,438	898	62	Mainpuri ...	1,264	462	37
Azamgarh ...	936	472	50	Shájahánpur ...	2,165	745	34
Meerut ...	1,166	518	44	Allahabad ...	621	209	34
Aligarh ...	1,171	503	43	Farukhabad ...	789	250	32
Gorakhpur ...	1,752	728	41·5	Benares ...	607	189	31
Mirzapur ...	362	146	40	Bánda ...	261	80	30
Saháranpur ...	1,724	683	39	Cawnpore ...	1,148	353	30
Moradabad ...	1,495	581	39	Agra ...	1,300	380	29
Bareilly ...	1,158	449	39	Jhánsi ...	780	134	17
Jaunpur ...	368	322	38

The result of these appeals was slightly more favourable to the courts of first instance than in 1893 :—

	Upheld.	Modified.	Reversed.	Remanded.
1889	60·1	14·4	18·5	7
1890	62·2	14·2	17·3	6
1891	64·8	12·6	16·7	6
1892	61·2	13·9	18·6	6
1893	60·2	14·5	19·3	6
1894	61·5	12·9	19·5	6·1

Seventy appeals were summarily rejected against 21 in 1893.

28. The number of objections under section 561 for the past five years has been 376, 504, 380, 425 and (1894) 562.

Miscellaneous Judicial Appeals. Judicial Statement No. 10, Part II.

In calculating the average Subordinate Judge's work, that done by the temporary Additional Judges has been excluded except that of the Additional Subordinate Judges at Mainpuri and Meerut, who worked each for six months.

33. On 1st April 1894 the Small Cause Court for the town and civil station of Roorkee was abolished.

One District Judge, seven Subordinate Judges and twenty-eight Munsifs in the exercise of Small Cause Court powers disposed of cases with the following average numbers :— Tables B., C. and D.

	Judge.	Subordinate Judges.	Munsifs.
Suits	1	540	383
Execution of decrees	17	253	124
Miscellaneous cases	...	38	13

34. In Bánda the Judge had only 23 days for civil work, in Farukhabad about 30 or 35, in Meerut 43 and in Mainpuri 79. In Banda there were special causes acting during the year. For the relief of Meerut, Mainpuri and other judgeships a scheme was worked out, and it has since the end of the year been approved by the Government and put into work.

II.—HIGH COURT.

35. The following table shows the state of the civil business which came before the High Court during 1893 and 1894 :—

	Institutions with pending file of previous year.		Disposals.		Pending at the close.
	1893.	1894.	1893.	1894.	1893.	1894.

The figures given in last year's note for miscellaneous judicial cases in 1893 were erroneous.

During the year 1894 the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council determined four appeals from the Court. In one the decision was upheld, in one modified, in one reversed ; one appeal was dismissed in default of prosecution. In two cases the Privy Council granted special leave to appeal in cases in which the Court had refused to allow an appeal.

36. The average duration in days of the cases decided by the Court was as follows :—

	1892.	1893.	1894.
Head 1	177	222	...
„ 2 contested	104	149	150
„ 2 uncontested	55	51	24

„ 4	615	963	394
„ 5	289	346	321
„ 6	224	198	167

In 1893 a very large number of long pending second appeals was disposed of. The average duration of those disposed of in 1894 was in consequence very much below the corresponding average for 1893.

At the end of 1894 the pending first and second appeals belonged to the following years :—

	1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.	1894.
First Appeals	2	4	52	167	261
Second Appeals	1	3	12	205	947

37. The first appeals instituted during the year 1894 fall into the following grades of value :—

	Appeals.
Not exceeding Rs. 100	3
Above " 100 and not exceeding Rs. 1,000	30
" " 1,000 " " 2,500	29

38. The second appeals instituted during the year 1894 fall into the following grades of value :—

	Appeals.
Not exceeding Rs. 10	43
Above " 10 and not exceeding Rs. 50	184
" " 50 " " 100	145
" " 100 " " 500	440

" " 2,500 " " 5,000	53
Exceeding Rs. 5,000	8
Not capable of valuation	2
Total	1,178

39. The following table compares the general results of the hearing of first and second appeals during the last two years :—

		F. A.		S. A.
		1893.	1894.	1893.	1894.
Without trial		47	35	115	89

	Remanded	33	29	133	128
	Total ...	303	313	1,744	1,352

Seventy-eight second appeals were summarily rejected in 1894 under section 551 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as compared with 157 in 1893.

Of contested first appeals, in 66·5 per cent. the decrees appealed against were confirmed as against 69·6 per cent. in 1893. In second appeals, the percentage was 74·3 as against 73·9 in 1893.

III.—FISCAL.

(a).—Income.

40. The receipts of civil courts as shown in Table G have been during the last three years Rs. 26,44,614, Rs. 26,06,980 and (in 1894) Rs. 24,13,263. The details of variations in items between the last two years are :— Tables F and G.

Decrease.	Rs.
(1) Net value of stamps	1,27,398
(2) Duties and penalties	303
(3) Fees for amíns	23,715
(4) Other fees	46,260
(5) Judicial record fund	386
Increase.	Rs.
(6) Fines	187
(7) Sale of intestate property	4,099

41. The court-fees stamps received in subordinate courts during the last three years have had the following values :—Rs. 17,03,588, Rs. 16,87,860 and (in 1894) Rs. 15,72,788. The most striking falls in districts are those of Rs. 23,505 in Benares and Rs. 19,910 in Agra. The general decrease corresponds with the decreased institution of suits, miscellaneous cases and appeals. The distinction between ad valorem fees and fixed fees is not accurately reproduced in the registers of a large number of districts. In the High Court there was a fall of Rs. 12,267 under this head. Refunds in the High Court were Rs. 5,890 against Rs. 7,964 in 1893. The examination in the Court's office of documents liable to court-fees led to the realization of deficient fees to the amount of Rs. 2,839-10 against Rs. 2,276-14 in 1893.

The districts in which the largest recoveries on account of "duties and penalties" were made were Aligarh (Rs. 1,300) and Agra (Rs. 527). Fees for amíns and other fees fell with the decrease in litigation. The increase from the sale of intestate property is due to one large item in the district of Mainpuri.

42. Under the head "Judicial Record Fund" there was a decrease of Rs. 2,480 in subordinate courts and an increase of Rs. 2,095 in the High Court. In districts the chief changes were :—

Increase.	Rs.	Decrease.	Rs.
Saháranpur	1,014	Gorakhpur	2,115
Sháhjahanpur	1,399	Gházipur	1,504
Moradabad	1,389	Benares	1,466
Aligarh	679	Cawnpore	907
		Allahabad	790

(b).—Expenditure.

43. Under the head "Salaries of officers and their establishments" apart from the High Court there is a decrease of Rs. 17,838. The cost of process serving has increased by Rs. 3,697. In the High Court the charges shown have risen by Rs. 17,619, owing to the higher rate of exchange compensation allowance. It is necessary to point out that an accurate return apportioning salaries of High Court Judges and of District and Sessions Judges and the High Court and District and Sessions Court establishments between the civil judicial and criminal judicial administrations is practically impossible, and that as any return attempted to be made would be purely speculative the figures shown in column 17 of Statement 1 and those shown in column 10 of Table G are entirely unreliable. The principle upon which the figures shown in column 10 of Table G have been arrived at is obviously incorrect and the figures are misleading. The attention of the Government has already been called to this. As, however, the Court has not been authorised by the Government to depart from the forms in these respects of previous civil statements, the incorrect figures and misleading principle referred to have been of necessity retained and followed.

The deficit shown against the High Court in the present statement is Rs. 2,99,914 as compared with Rs. 2,71,852 in 1893, but the figures are misleading. They are arrived at by charging the full salaries of the High Court Judges and High Court establishment to the civil judicial administration, whereas in fact a considerable proportion of such salaries should be charged to criminal judicial administration. It is also to be observed that in column 10 of Table G one-half of the salaries of District and Sessions Judges is charged to civil judicial administration, whereas possibly one-third of such salaries would be found to be in excess of the amount properly chargeable to this head.

(c).—General.

44. Table G is a statement of certain items of income and expenditure of civil and criminal courts in the North-Western Provinces for 1894; it does not profess to be a statement of profit and loss on the administration of civil justice. The excess of the shown items of income over the shown items of expenditure compares thus with the excess for previous years :—
